PART A: PARTY ADVERTISEMENTS SOLELY PROMOTING THE PARTY

A party's election expenses during the regulated period (14 July to 13 October) must not exceed their expense limit. It is an offence to spend more than the limit.

A party contesting the party vote can spend up to $1,388,000 (including GST) and $32,600 (including GST) for each electorate candidate the party stands at the election.

Party election expenses are the costs of advertising in any medium that:

- may reasonably be regarded as encouraging or persuading voters to vote, or not to vote, for a party (whether or not the name of the party is stated), and
- are published, or continue to be published, during the regulated period for the general election, and
- are promoted by the party or with the party's authority.

Election expenses include:

- the costs incurred in the preparation, design, composition, printing, postage and publication of the advertisement, and
- the reasonable market value of any material used or applied towards the advertisement provided to the party for free or below reasonable market value.

Instructions on how to Complete Part A:

In this part you should record all election expenses (including GST) incurred in relation to party advertisements published, or that continued to be published, during the regulated period for the general election (14 July to 13 October 2023) solely promoting the party.

For advertisements published both before and during the regulated period you should apportion the costs so that only a fair proportion of the expenses are attributed to being incurred during the regulated period. Only record the amount attributable to the regulated period in the return.

Disclose the total amount (including GST) incurred on election advertisements published during the regulated period even if payment for the advertising was made outside of the regulated period.

PART B: PARTY ADVERTISEMENTS SHARED WITH CANDIDATES OR OTHER PARTIES

In this part you should record all election expenses incurred in relation to election advertisements published, or that continued to be published, during the regulated period for the general election (14 July to 13 October 2023) promoting the party and one or more candidates or parties.

Apportionment is permitted between the party and a candidate(s) or other party(ies). Where an expense item has been apportioned between the party and candidate(s) or party(ies), record the total cost of the advertisement and the share apportioned to the party based on coverage. You should ensure there is a consistent description and approach to apportionment in each return of election expenses. Record the name of the candidate(s) or other party(ies) featured in the advertising in the item description.

For advertisements published both before and during the regulated period you should apportion the costs so that only a fair proportion of the expenses are attributed to being incurred during the regulated period. Only record the amount attributable to the regulated period in the return.

Disclose the total amount incurred on election advertisements published during the regulated period even if payment for the advertising was made outside of the regulated period.

Election expenses include:

- the costs incurred in the preparation, design, composition, printing, postage and publication of the advertisement, and
- the reasonable market value of any material used or applied towards the advertisement provided to the party for free or below reasonable market value.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Party Secretary of Freedoms New Zealand

Qualified Opinion

We have undertaken a reasonable assurance engagement of Freedoms New Zealand's (the "Party") compliance, in all material respects, with the requirement of Section 206I and 206L of the Electoral Act 1993 (the "Act") as evaluated against the Party's Election Expenses Return (the Return) for the period of 14 July 2023 to 13 October 2023.

In our opinion, except of the matter described in the section "Basis for Qualified Opinion", in all material respects, the election expenditure as presented in the Return did not exceed the maximum amount prescribed by section 206C of the Electoral Act.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

We were unable to obtain sufficient appropriate evidence about the component parties' election expenditure due to the fact that we are engaged as the auditor of the Freedoms New Zealand, however we have not engaged as the auditor of the component parties: Vision NZ and Rock the Vote NZ. Therefore, our scope was limited in respect of assessing the completeness of the election expenditure paid by the component parties.

Party Secretary's Responsibilities

The Party Secretary is responsible for:

- a) the preparation of the Return in accordance with the appropriate provisions of Section 206 of the Electoral Act 1993;
- b) identification of the risks that threaten the requirement of the Act identified above being met and controls which will mitigate those risks and monitor ongoing compliance;
- c) providing us with the access to all information of which the Party Secretary is aware that is relevant to the preparation of the Return, additional information that we may request from the Party for the purpose of our compliance and unrestricted access to persons within the Party from whom we determine it necessary to obtain audit evidence.

Out independence and Quality Control

We have complied with the relevant ethical requirements relating to assurance engagements, which include independence and other requirements founded on fundamental principles of integrity, objectivity, professional competence and care, confidentiality and professional behaviour.

In accordance with the Professional and Ethical Standard 3 (Amended) issued by the New Zealand Audit and Assurance Standards Board, we maintain a comprehensive system of quality controls including documented policies and procedures regarding compliance with ethical requirements, professional standards and applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

We are engaged to provide compliance services on the Party's Donations and Loan Return. Other than these services, we have no relationship with, or interests in Freedoms New Zealand.

Delivering Clarity and Confidence

Auditor's Responsibilities

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Party's compliance, in all material respects, with the requirements of section 206I and section 206L of the Electoral Act 1993, for the regulated period of 14 July 2023 to 13 October 2023. Our engagement has been conducted in accordance with SAE 3100 (Revised) Compliance Engagements issued by the New Zealand Auditing and Assurance Standards Board.

An assurance engagement to report to the Party's compliance with the requirements of the Act involves performing procedures to obtain evidence about the compliance activity and controls implemented to meet the requirements of the Act. The procedures selected depend on our judgement, including the identification and assessment of risks of material non-compliance with the requirements of the Act as evaluated against the Return.

Because of inherent limitations of an assurance engagement, together with the internal control structure it is possible that fraud, error, or non-compliance with compliance requirements may occur and not be detected.

A reasonable assurance engagement throughout the specified period does not provide assurance on whether compliance with the requirement of the Act will continue in the future.

Who we Report to

This report is made solely to the Party Secretary. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the Party Secretary those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Party Secretary, for our audit work and for this opinion we have formed.

Dear Alex

Letter of representation for party return of expenses for the 2023 General Election

This representation letter is furnished in connection with the return of party election expenses and broadcasting allocation expenses for the 2023 general election (the return) by Freedoms New Zealand (the Party) made in accordance with sections 206I and 206IA of the Electoral Act 1993 (the Act) which has been subject to an assurance engagement and reported on by you in accordance with sections 206L and 206LA of the Act.

I understand that your assurance engagement was conducted in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Act and the applicable Auditing and Assurance Standards issued by the New Zealand Auditing and Assurance Standards Board.

I confirm and take responsibility for the following representations after taking all reasonable steps to assure myself of them:

- 1 The return has been prepared in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Act.
- 2 I am responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal control designed to provide reasonable assurance as to the integrity and reliability of the return. I have done this, and all explanations or demonstrations of this to you have been complete and accurate.
- 3 All records, documents and accounts (records) have been kept by the Party (including subsidiary entities) and made available to you, and these materials will be retained in accordance with the requirements of the Act.
- 4 I have disclosed to you:
 - 4.1 any material transactions not disclosed in the records;

- 4.2 the existence of all relevant agreements or activities relating to the Party's members of the previous Parliament, electorate candidates, subsidiary or closely connected political entities, third party promoters (whether registered or not), and other political parties (whether registered or not) or their electorate candidates;
- 4.3 any alleged, suspected or proven illegal activity under the Act or other legislation potentially relevant to the return or instances of non-compliance with applicable requirements;
- 4.4 any outstanding disputed claims, matters with authorities, or planned or continuing litigation; and
- 4.5 the fact of, and results from, any assessment made by me that considered whether the records of the Party may be materially misstated or incomplete for any reason; any design deficiencies in the compliance system and instances where that system has not operated as described.
- 5 I have sought, received, and hold in the Party's records confirmation from, or on behalf of, any Party members of the previous Parliament that all party advertisements published, or election expenses incurred by those members of Parliament have been disclosed to me, with adequate supporting records, for inclusion in this return.
- 6 The return contains the total returnable expenses of the Party for the 2023 general election whether paid or incurred before, during, or after the regulated period. The return includes all expenses, including apportioned expenses, and irrespective of the source of funds or entity paying for the activities concerned, and irrespective of whether or not an advertisement contained a promoter statement.
- 7 Parts A to C of the return's contents have been determined by considering, in the following sequence, these questions and the relevant provisions of the Act:
- 7.1 Was the advertising undertaken by the party secretary, or with their authority? [definition of election expenses, section 206(1)] (If no, advertising is not an election expense).
- 7.2 If yes - did the advertising constitute publishing? [definition of publish, section 3D; definition of election expenses, section 206(1)] (If no, advertising is not an election expense).
- 7.3 If yes - was that the publishing of a party advertisement? That is, did the advertisement encourage or persuade, or appear to encourage or persuade, voters to vote for the party, or against another party, or both? [definition of party advertisement, section 3(1); definition of election expenses, section 206(1)] (If no, advertising is not a party election expense).
- 7.4 If yes - was the advertising undertaken (or deemed to be undertaken) during the regulated period (from 14 July to 13 October 2023)? [definition of regulated period, section 3B; definition of election expenses, section 206(1)] (If no, advertising is not an election expense).
- 7.5 If yes:
- 7.5.1 What expense was incurred in undertaking the advertising? [definition of advertising expenses, section 3E; definition of election expenses, section 206(1)]

- 7.5.2 What cost was involved in respect of the preparation, design, composition, printing, distribution, postage and publishing of the party advertisement? [section 3E(1)(a)(i)]
- 7.5.3 What was the reasonable market of any material used for or applied toward the party advertisement, including material provided free of charge, or below reasonable market value? [section 3E(1)(a)(ii)]
- 7.5.4 Was the advertisement a joint party advertisement [section 206CB], or a joint party and candidate advertisement [section 206CC]? (If yes, the costs can be apportioned based on coverage).
- 7.5.5 Was the advertisement published before the regulated period and continued to be published during the regulated period [section 206CA]? (If yes, the costs can be apportioned with the costs attributed to the regulated period counted).
- 7.6 Do any of the costs identified above fall within any of the election expense exceptions? [section 3E(1)(b)]
 - 7.6.1 The conduct of any survey or public opinion poll (other than push-polling).
 - 7.6.2 Framework, other than a commercial framework, supporting a hoarding displaying the party advertisement.
 - 7.6.3 The labour of any person provided free of charge by that person.
 - 7.6.4 Replacement of election materials damaged in circumstances out of the party's control.
 - 7.6.5 Expenses, including running costs, of a vehicle used to display a party advertisement (provided payment was not made or promised) for the display of the advertisement on the vehicle.
 - 7.6.6 Allocations from the Electoral Commission of money for election broadcasting [definition of election expenses, section 206(1)(c)].

If yes, that specific cost is not an election expense.
- 7.7 Where an apportionment of election expenses is given in the return:
 - 7.7.1 the basis of apportionment is appropriate, and has been properly applied and recorded; and
 - 7.7.2 the information contained in the Party's return is known to be consistent with that of the Party's electorate candidates, or the undertakings of other entities involved in the apportionment included in the records.
- 8 Where the Party received a broadcasting allocation for the 2023 general election Parts D to F have been determined by considering these questions and the relevant provisions of the Electoral Act 1993 (the Electoral Act) and Part 6 of the Broadcasting Act 1989 (the Broadcasting Act):
 - 8.1 Was the allocation used by the Party to produce, broadcast or publish election programmes on television, radio or election advertisements on the internet for the 2023 general election? [definition of election programme, broadcasting costs, production costs and publishing costs, section 69(1) Broadcasting Act; definition of election advertisement, section 3A Electoral Act] (If no, advertising is not an allocation expense).

- 8.1.1 If the allocation was used for broadcasting costs - was the placement on television or radio during the election period (from 10 September to 13 October 2023)? [definition of election period, section 69(1) Broadcasting Act] (the allocation cannot be used for broadcasting costs on radio or television outside of the election period).
 - 8.1.2 If the allocation was used for publishing costs - was the placement on the internet during the election period? (the allocation can only fund publishing costs during the election period. Parties can spend their own funds on internet placement costs before and during the election period and those costs must be declared as election expenses in Parts A-C if the election advertising was published in the regulated period (see 7.4 above)).
 - 8.1.3 If the allocation was used for production costs what cost was involved in respect of the preparation, design, composition and creation of the programme or advertisement? [section 69(1) Broadcasting Act]. Parties can spend their own funds on production costs before and during the election period and those costs must be declared as election expenses in Parts A to C if the production costs are for election advertisements that were published in the regulated period (see 7.4 above)).
- 8.2 Was the allocation spent on any advertising that promoted the party and a candidate [section 70(2) of the Broadcasting Act and section 205EA and 206CC of the Electoral Act]? (If yes, the Party must report the total amounts spent on joint party and candidate advertising in Part E of the return and the percentage coverage provided to the Party and candidate. The candidate will need to report the value apportioned to the candidate as candidate election expenses and a donation from the Party in the candidate's return of donations, expenses and loans).
- 8.3 Was the allocation spent on advertising that solely promoted a candidate [section 70(3) of the Broadcasting Act]? (If yes, the Party must report the amounts spent on candidate only advertising in Part F of the return and the candidate will need to include the costs as candidate election expenses and a donation from the party in the candidate's return of donations, expenses and loans).
- 8.4 Has the Party reported details of all accounts sent by the Party to the Electoral Commission under section 80B(1) of the Broadcasting Act in respect of expenditure of the party's allocation? [section 206IA of the Electoral Act]. The Commission pays suppliers' invoices that have been certified by an authorised party official as payable from the party's broadcasting allocation. With the exception of internet advertising placement costs paid directly by the party (for example, Facebook promoted posts), payments are made to suppliers and no money is paid directly to parties in accordance with the requirements of section 80B of the Broadcasting Act.

9 Any and all misstatements you have identified during the course of your assurance engagement have been adjusted in the final return.

- 10 I have completed my own procedures, distinct from your assurance engagement processes, to evaluate the accuracy and completeness of the return.
- 11 The return is free of any material misstatements or omissions.

These representations are made in terms mutually agreed between us, and to supplement information obtained by you from the records of the Party and to confirm information given to you orally.

Yours sincerely
