DONATIONS Complete Parts A to G

Party Donations

A party donation is a donation of money (or the equivalent of money), goods or services that is made to a party, or to any person or body of persons if there are reasonable grounds to believe that the donation is intended for the benefit of the party. A party donation includes:

- a donation of money or the equivalent of money, including where a person pays something for the party
- where a party is provided with goods or services free of charge that have a reasonable market value of more than $1,500 (or $50 if provided by an overseas person - see Part D for more information on who is an overseas person)
- where a party is provided with discounted goods or services and the reasonable market value of the goods or services is greater than $1,500 (or $50 if provided by an overseas person); the difference between the contract or agreed price and the reasonable market value of the goods or services is a donation

- when a party sells over-valued goods or services, the difference between the price paid and the reasonable market value is a donation (for example a fundraising auction or dinner)
- where credit is provided to a party on more favourable terms than those prevailing at the same time for similar credit, the value of the favourable terms is a donation.

The following are not a party donation:

- free labour
- goods or services provided free of charge to a party, or to any person on the party's behalf, that have a reasonable market value of $1,500 or less (or $50 or less if from an overseas person), or
- a candidate donation that is included in a candidate's return of donations.

PART A: PARTY DONATIONS OF MORE THAN $5,000

Instructions for Part A – Donations over $5,000

Party donations of more than $5,000 (including GST) received during 2025 are required to be declared in Part A, including a series of donations received from the same donor during the year that add up to more than $5,000. Also include those donations exceeding $20,000 received during election year and reported under section 210C (this only applies to an annual return for the year ending in the year of the general election).

Do not include in Part A contributions to donations, anonymous or overseas donations, donations protected from disclosure, or donations not exceeding $5,000 (see Parts B, C, D, E, F and G).

You need to record the name and street address of the donor, the date the donation was received and the amount received from the donor. Where you have received a number of donations from the same donor you should include each date on which a donation was received from the donor and the aggregated total from the donor. You also need to confirm whether any person (other than the donor) has contributed more than $5,000 to the donation (or more than $50 if the contributor is an overseas person). Contributions of more than $5,000 must be disclosed in Part B (or Part E for overseas contributors).

For any donations from a trust, include the name of the individual at whose direction the donation was made.

Instructions for Part B – Contributions over $5,000

A contribution is money, goods or services that makes up a donation or is included in a donation or has been used to wholly or partly fund a donation, that was given to the donor or a person who was expected to pass the contribution to the donor. Only complete Part B if the donation in Part A includes a contribution, from someone other than the donor, exceeding $5,000.

For each contribution in Part B you will need to provide:

- the name and street address of each contributor
- the line number of the donation in Part A that the contribution was part of and the date the donation was received
- the amount of each contribution made by the contributor, or in the case of multiple contributions, the total amount of the contributions from the same person to the donation during the year.

PART D: OVERSEAS PARTY DONATIONS OF MORE THAN $50

Instructions for Part D – Overseas donations over $50

Donations from an overseas person

An overseas person is:

- an individual who resides outside New Zealand and is not a New Zealand citizen or registered elector, or
- a body corporate incorporated outside New Zealand; or
- an unincorporated body that has its head office or principal place of business outside New Zealand.

If a donation from an overseas person is over $50 (either on its own or when aggregated with all other donations made by or on behalf of the same overseas person during the year) the party is entitled to keep $50 and within 20 working days must either return the excess to the donor or pay the excess to the Electoral Commission.

In Part D you must declare:

- the name and street address of the overseas person; and
- the date the donation was received or, in the case of multiple donations, the date each donation was received; and
- the amount of the donation or, in the case of aggregated donations, the total amount of the donations; and
- the amount returned to the overseas person or paid to the Electoral Commission, and the date of that return payment.

PART G: OTHER PARTY DONATIONS UP TO $5,000

Instructions for Part G – Other party donations up to $5,000

The total number and value of other party donations received in the following bands must be disclosed in Part G:

- anonymous party donations of $1,500 or less
- all other donations not exceeding $1,500
- party donations of more than $1,500 up to and including $5,000.

Although aggregation is generally required for donations there is no requirement to aggregate donations from the same donor for the purposes of determining what donations to include and in which band in Part G. If a donor has made more than one donation in a category each donation should be counted separately when calculating the number of donations.

Example:

If you received two donations of $2,000 from the same donor in the calendar year, these should be recorded as two donations in the 'Donations exceeding $1,500 but not exceeding $5,000' band.

LOANS Complete Parts H and I

Party Loans exceeding $15,000

A party loan is a written or oral agreement under which a lender lends money to a political party. Money lent by a registered bank at a commercial interest rate is not a party loan, nor are credit cards and overdraft facilities with registered banks.

PART H: PARTY LOANS EXCEEDING $15,000

Instructions for Part H – Party loans exceeding $15,000

Party loans from the same lender exceeding $15,000 entered into during the year (including those exceeding $30,000 that have been reported during the year under section 214F) must be reported in Part H.

Loans from the same lender need to be aggregated. Include loans entered into during the year not exceeding $15,000, but that exceed $15,000 when aggregated with all other loans from the same lender during 2025 or unpaid balances as at 31 December 2025 of any loans provided by the same lender in any previous year.
