MEO and Local Body Elections 2025

Introduction

Local elections are held once every three years. Changes made to the Electoral Act 2022 require the Commission to send information to every person that has indicated they are of Māori descent by 31 March in an election year and no less than three months before an election period.

2025 is the first time MEO and Enrolment Update Campaigns will be combined to ensure people have able to update their enrolment record in time for Local Council postal vote.

The Electoral Commission's role in local elections is to ensure that the electoral roll is up to date and provided to each council for them to deliver their local election.

Note: Local Council and Regional Council elections are run by two election providers Electionz.com and Election Services

MEO AND ENROLMENT UPDATE CAMPAIGN

From Tuesday 1 April 2025, a combined Māori Electoral Option (MEO) and Enrolment Update Campaign (EUC) will be undertaken to allow all registered electors (including those on the Provisional Roll) who are enrolled as at Monday 24 February 2025 the opportunity to check their enrolment details and update them if necessary. In the case of Māori Electoral Option, the aim is to raise awareness they can change roll types and information about the restricted period.

During the EUC, each registered elector will be mailed an enrolment update pack (ROE 2 pack) showing their current enrolment details and information how to update their details if required.

Information in packs:

Measure no.	2024/25 OUTPUT1-01
Electoral roll accuracy
Description	Percentage of reviewed electoral roll changes requiring no correction SPE footnote: The Commission regularly audits a random sample of elector records that have had manual, or system automated changes made to them to ensure changes between electoral rolls and to name, address, date of birth, and Māori descent data fields were made correctly
Intent	This measure provides confidence that changes to the electoral roll have been made accurately. Roll accuracy is an important aspect of roll integrity as it ensures those who are eligible to vote can do so, they are able to cast their vote in the correct electorate, and each person votes only once for a candidate and a party. This is also, to an extent, a measure of roll validity, as it incorporates processing of third-party roll validation data.

Version 2.0

Document Purpose

The Data Quality and Integrity Assurance Plan is a deliverable for the GE2026 Enrolment Data Integrity and Assurance project. The plan is intended to provide confidence and assurance in what needs to be monitored, or detected and corrected, to ensure that data quality requirements are being met, and the electoral roll is accurate and available when needed. This document will be used as a template for development of the 2026 Data Quality Integrity and Assurance Plan by the Enrolment team.

1. Introduction

The Data Quality and Integrity Assurance Plan (DQIAP) outlines the strategies and practices to maintain enrolment data quality and integrity throughout its lifecycle. The goal is to ensure that data remains accurate, valid, complete, and secure, supporting enrolment operations, post-election processes, analytics, and decision-making.

2. Objectives

The objectives of the DQIAP are to:

- Ensure the accuracy, consistency, completeness, validity, and timeliness of data.
- Identify potential risks to data quality and integrity and mitigate them through manual and system processes and controls.
- Apply assurance processes to ensure controls are effective.
- Protect data from unauthorised access or modification, ensuring its integrity.
- Prevent data errors and inconsistencies across systems.
- Establish clear roles, responsibilities and metrics for monitoring and maintaining data quality.
- Foster a culture of continuous improvement for data quality across the Enrolment business unit.
- Ensure compliance with legal, regulatory and enterprise requirements related to data management.
- Provide clear pathways for escalation when required.

3. Scope

The DQIAP applies to:

- All systems and applications used for directly collecting and storing data necessary to produce published and unpublished electoral rolls and validate an elector's vote following an election cycle.
- Data entry, modification, transfer, storage, and retrieval activities.
- Structured and unstructured data (personal information, transaction records, system logs).
- Assurance of controls across all Enrolment core functions and tasks that may impact data quality.
- To ensure that enrolment functions undertaken by other business units (such as Strategic Engagement and Partnership (SEP) or voting places) meet acceptable Quality Assurance (QA) standards.

4. Foundational Documents

To guide and frame Data Integrity and Assurance activities, several key artefacts are typically used. These artefacts help ensure that data is accurate, consistent, secure, and trustworthy throughout its lifecycle. Here are some of the most common and important ones:

4.1. Roll Integrity and Assurance Landscape

- The Commission has a varied and comprehensive roll integrity and assurance landscape, built on the four pillars of security, validity, accuracy, and completeness.
- This Roll Integrity and Assurance Landscape has contributed to an electoral roll of high integrity, that is trusted as a reliable foundation of New Zealand's electoral system.

4.2. Quality Assurance and Control manual \(2022\)

- This manual outlines the Quality Assurance and Controls processes currently being applied during enrolment form processing and checks against data stored in the MIKE system
- Quality Assurance and Quality Control are both different from each other and required as part of quality management.
- They should not be misunderstood as interchangeable terms. Quality Assurance is process focused while Quality Control is end-product focused.

4.3. Risk and Controls – Enrolment Data

- The Advisor Enrolment Integrity is responsible for the overall maintenance and currency of the Risk and Control Register of all Enrolment processes. This register details the process risks and controls for managing data integrity and ensuring compliance with data quality standards.
- This is a working document that allows the user to manage triggers and risks and identify any controls or processes that need to be reviewed.
- The DQIAP is designed to test the effectiveness of the controls to manage the process related risks.

5. Data Quality Dimensions

The following data quality dimensions are tested to provide assurance that roll data is suitable for use and that it is reliable for decision-making.

- Accuracy: data is accurate as provided by the elector and matches source documentation as defined by section 83 of the Electoral Act 1993 (the Act).

- Completeness: documentation includes all mandatory fields that impacts a person's voting rights, the public right to inspect the electoral roll and Elector Enquiry update campaign.
- Validity: mechanisms are in place to ensure only those eligible to be enrolled are included on the electoral roll. Every record represents a valid Enrolment and where a person no longer qualifies, they are removed.
- Security: maintaining the security of documentation and ensuring access to data is compliant with the Electoral and Privacy Acts, and any Commission policies, and access is limited to those who have a business need. An independent certification and accreditation of IT systems is undertaken prior to an event.

6. Roles and Responsibilities

The following roles give effect to the DQIAP:

Director, Enrolment	Oversees data management policies and processes that ensure the quality, security, and availability of enrolment data.
	Oversees data stewardship to ensure that there is effective day-to-day management and maintenance of enrolment data that adheres to policies and standards.
Manager, Applications	Monitors risks and escalates issues which have significant impact on data quality and data integrity. Ensures data security, backups, and system integrity.
Team Leaders and Senior Enrolment Officers	Maintain data accuracy and consistency and address data quality performance issues.
Advisor, Enrolment Integrity	Monitors and enforces data quality standards, conducts audits, reviews, and maintains enrolment processes.
	Performs and reports on data quality assurance
	Escalates issues which have significant impact on data quality, data integrity or an individual voting rights.
	Provides advice on operational and strategic issues affecting roll data integrity.
Data and Insights	Maintain dashboards.
Operations, Risk and Assurance	Specialist Advice
Strategy, Governance & Development	Independent Assurance, Monitoring effectiveness of controls

Commented [LH1]: What role does the Principal Advisor, Enrolment play? This is from the PD
"The role will also lead the design and implementation of robust integrity and assurance processes that build trust in enrolment, and our democracy overall"

Commented [Dg 2R1]: I'm not sure where this actually sits, our understand was the Principal advisors focus was on the operational approach to campaigns and the Advisor Integrity focus was on the process level - will discuss with Rachel and see if required

Commented [R 3R1]: Do we say that the Principal Advisor leads the design and implementation of new processes, when necessary? Rather than being involved in the operational side and delivery of the tasks and processes outlined in this plan. @Anusha Guler can you confirm?

7. Data Integrity Assurance

To protect data integrity, the following measures are in place:

Data validation	Automated data validation rules to check data accuracy and consistency at the point of entry.
Access control	Access to data controlled via RBAC and monitored for unauthorised access or misuse.
Audit trails	Comprehensive logs of data access, modifications and deletions for traceability is maintained.
Data encryption	Data is encrypted both at rest and during transmission to prevent unauthorised access or tampering.
Data Backup	Regular backups for critical data to prevent data loss, with clear data recovery protocols in place.
Error Handling	Procedures for identifying and rectifying incorrect data entries.
Enrolment Compliance Monitoring	Reviews to monitor adherence to relevant electoral legislation, policies, and procedures.

8. Assurance Reporting

A monthly review of scheduled controls giving assurance and evidence that controls are sufficient and appropriate, and where there is evidence that they are not, an action plan will be provided to refine the current control(s) or introduce a new control(s).

The Advisor Enrolment Integrity is responsible for providing the monthly assurance report to the Director Enrolment. A summary will be provided quarterly to ELT and the Board.

Enrolment will also operate several assurance dashboards that will be available to Team Leaders and Managers across the organisation to have near real time visibility of assurance activities and results. These dashboards are key inputs into the monthly Assurance Report.

9. Schedule of Data Assurance Activities

The activities undertaken to maintain data quality are outlined in Appendix A – Summary of Assurance Activities.

To ensure there is appropriate oversight we are utilizing four lines of defence outlined in Appendix D - Enrolment Assurance lines of defence. The Advisor Enrolment Integrity focuses on the first line of defence.

The Advisor Enrolment Integrity is responsible for:

- Developing and maintaining an annual schedule of the assurance activities outlined in Appendix A, covering the period October 2025 until after General Election 2026.
- Ensuring that the scheduled activities for testing the effectiveness of data integrity and assurance controls are carried out as planned.
- Maintaining accurate records of all completed activities, including dates and outcomes, to support transparency and continuous improvement.

10. Escalation, Feedback and Reporting Pathways

To ensure we are identifying, investigating, remediating, and recording operational incidents promptly is essential for protecting both electors and the organisation. This process ensures transparency, accountability, and continuous improvement in operational integrity.

Enrolment’s data integrity escalation pathway:

11. Continuous Improvement

The DQIAP is reviewed and updated regularly through:

- Review Feedback: Corrective action to resolve data quality issues
- Performance Metrics: Tracking data quality KPIs
- Training: Building data literacy around enrolment data
- Technology improvements: Leveraging new tools for enhancing data quality and reducing manual tasks.
- Data Integrity and Assurance Landscape Heatmap: Use heatmap to guide areas for improvement.

Subject: Review for systemic issues which would indicate Māori are not being enrolled appropriately Attachments:

For: Approval Comment Action Noting

Purpose

This paper updates you on the review undertaken to assess whether there were any indications of a systemic issue that those who identified themselves as being of Māori descent when enrolling, not being recorded in the Commission's records as being of Māori descent.

Results of the review

The review has not identified any evidence which indicates a systemic issue in relation to the recording of Māori descent.

The review found:

1. The Commission's enrolment processes appear to have appropriate processes and controls in place to accurately capture where those enrolling or updating their enrolment details identify themselves to be of Māori descent.
2. No further occurrences of error in recording of Māori descent in either of
 - A sample of initial enrolment and enrolment update forms
 - A review of communications between the Commission and the public.

The review therefore on balance indicates that any error in which an enrolled person's Māori descent details are not accurately recorded are instances in which the Commission's processes and controls have failed to operate as intended, but that this is not a systemic issue.

The review did bring to light an unrelated issue which ultimately identified that 18 first time electors were placed on the General roll for the period between the closure of the Māori electoral option on July 14th and September 28, 2023. Every single first time Māori elector who had been placed on the general roll (700) was reviewed, in line with the Commission's risk tolerance. The Commission identified the most likely cause of this error was inconsistent understanding by staff due to the different rules which apply to those enrolling for the first time, and those who are changing between the Māori and general rolls (the latter being prohibited in the three months prior to the General election, and the former permitted.)

All records were fixed, and additional training and controls were undertaken to increase the efficacy of the Electoral Commission's process in the run up to the 2023 General election. No further action is considered necessary on this issue.

Background

A complaint was received by the Commission in August 2023 from ██████████, who later emailed the Chief Executive on 8th September 2023.

██████████ had communicated to the Commission that he was of Māori descent in 2022 and had the reasonable expectation that his records would be updated. The Commission had not updated his records. As such, ██████████ did not receive any direct communications about the Māori electoral option during the period in which roll changes were possible. Unfortunately, ██████████ had not then been able to change rolls to the Māori electoral roll. ██████████ queried whether there were plans to undertake a review for systemic issues of this type. The Commission endeavoured to maintain the integrity of all electoral processes and commissioned this review.

Approach to the review

We sought to form a view on whether there were systemic issues and identified that to do so we needed a view of the processes and controls operated, and a view on the efficacy of these processes and controls. To ensure that the review could be conducted efficiently, we limited the period we would examine to from the start of the financial year in which the identified error occurred up to the date and time the review was being conducted, being from 1 July 2022 to 28 September 2023.

What we reviewed	What the review enables us to assess
Enrolment processes and controls in place	Whether appropriate to accurately capture voter information
A sample of transactions during the period	Whether the processes and controls are operating as intended.
Communications with the Commission	Whether there are other identifiable occasions where voter information had not been accurately recorded, particularly where an individual who had notified the Commission they were of Māori descent had not been recorded as such.

We were made aware of operational changes during the period which may have impacted our review, including:

- the communication portal (Zendesk) processes changed as of 1 July 2023. This was not a problem as we were able to access and review the contents of the former system that was operational between 1 July 2022 and 31 June 2023.
- Different operating rules which applied at different periods, specifically the Māori electoral option, which enabled roll changes between 30 March 2023 and 13 July 2023.
 - o We confirmed that the processes for communicating changes to the Electoral Commission were the same, but the rules resulted roll changes not being permitted before or after these dates. This was not a problem for our review as we were able to confirm the processes in place before and after these dates, their alignment to electoral law and whether the processes were appropriately followed during the time periods in which they applied.

Findings during the review

Enrolment processes and controls in place

We completed a walkthrough of enrolment processes and controls in place for enrolment. As part of this review, we walked through the five potential processes with which electors can authorise changes to their details on the roll, these being ROE1, ROE2, ROE9, EOL1 and IVS1.

In reviewing these processes, we confirmed the design of the controls to ensure that information is accurately recorded on the roll. This included consideration of the training, quality assurance, monitoring of errors, and other system checks including roll cleansing.

Overall, the training and controls in place appear appropriately designed to accurately capture elector information.

The highest potential risk appears to be data entry error as there is no external corroborative step for Māori descent (name and date of birth corroboration controls are partially applied in other places.) The control design to counter this risk appears is deemed adequate and includes: TSR (secondary review); validation of enrolment information by post following changes; and monitoring of errors by team leaders.

Sample of transactions during the period

To verify the appropriate application of the processes we tested a random sample of each of the five potential processes with which electors can authorises changes to their details on the roll, these being ROE1, ROE2, ROE9, EOL1 and IVS1.

Our sample of 140 found processes were operating as expected, with information being entered, checked, and confirmed by post as required. However, in one of the sample of 140, despite a secondary check having been completed, an error nonetheless was not picked up. This error was not related to Māori descent being correctly recorded and is an unrelated error for these purposes.

As a result of that error being identified we assessed that first time enrolling Māori descent electors who were enrolling after the 14th of July (when the Māori electoral option for changes closed) were at higher risk of not having their preferred roll accurately recorded. We thus reviewed all 700 electors in this position and identified 18 errors. All errors were corrected, and electors contacted to inform them that the error had been identified and corrected and to ensure they had the necessary information to vote on the correct roll during the General Election.

Communications with the Commission

In addition to the processes with which electors can authorises changes to their details on the roll, electors can communicate with the Commission via email, phone, or letter. These communications are triaged and recorded using a system called Zen Desk. The processes by which Zen Desk is managed and the categories under which enquiries are categorised in Zen Desk were changed as of 1 July 2023.

We reviewed the enquiries for the period from 1 July 2022 to 28 September 2023 and no further examples where the Commission had inaccurately recorded electors' as not being of Māori descent.

Recommendations

Our findings did not identify any material issues.

We understand business owners will be reviewing processes and undertaking lessons learned activities following the 2023 General election. We recommend that should any changes be implemented because of these reviews, that careful consideration and assessment of how they may impact the existing protections of elector information be applied.

MEMORANDUM | 09 December 2020

TO [REDACTED], Electoral Commission
FROM [REDACTED], [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], Research New Zealand
SUBJECT 2020 Roll Accuracy Survey (#5191)

This memo presents the results of the 2020 Roll Accuracy Survey, which involved collecting the enrolment details of a random sample of enrolled New Zealanders and then matching them with those recorded on the General and Māori Rolls as at 16 September 2020 (i.e. Writ Day) in order to derive an estimate of their overall accuracy.

The Electoral Enrolment Commission's target for the overall accuracy of the Rolls for 2020/21 is 95% or more.

Method

The 2020 Roll Accuracy Survey was completed, by telephone with a representative sample of n=1,001 enrolled New Zealanders, 18 years and over. Interviewing took place between 27 October and 20 November 2020. The sample was recruited using a random digit dialling process (RDD).

The survey data has been weighted by age and gender in order to ensure it is truly representative.

A copy of the survey questionnaire is attached to this report as Appendix A.

Matching process

During the survey, respondents were asked to provide their full name and address details, including what they believed to be the address they should be enrolled at.

An exhaustive matching process was then conducted against the Rolls, whereby those who provided sufficient information were searched for on the Roll to determine the accuracy of the information recorded for them.

A match was considered to be correct if a complete text match was achieved, or if it was obvious that aside from minor mismatches, such as spelling mistakes, that the details collected in the survey aligned with those held on the Roll.

Estimate of the accuracy of the Rolls

Overall estimate

A weighted analysis of the n=1001 respondents who were surveyed has resulted in an estimated accuracy for the 2020 General and Māori Rolls of 95.2%. The margin of error around this estimate is plus or minus 3.6% (at the 95% confidence level).

This estimate meets and exceeds the accuracy target of 95% or more.

Projecting the estimated accuracy of 95.2% to the 2020 General and Māori Rolls' count of 3,341,128, as at 16 September 2020, results in 3,180,754 +/- 114,507 accurately enrolled electors.

Comparisons

Table 1 overleaf presents the estimates of roll accuracy compared with the results for years during which there was a General Election.

The estimated accuracy level of 95.2% for 2020 is an improvement on the 94.9% of 2017, but below that of 2014 (96.9%) and 2011 (96.4%).
