INFORMATION ON CANDIDATE DONATIONS AND ELECTION EXPENSES

Who must file a return?

All candidates in the 2014 General Election must file a return of candidate donations and election expenses. Even if a candidate has no donations or expenses to declare, he or she must still complete and file the candidate return recording 'nil' donations and or expenses.

What is the deadline?

Candidate returns must be filed with the Electoral Commission by Tuesday, 20 January 2015 (within 70 working days of election day). Candidates who fail to comply with these requirements commit an offence and may be referred to the Police.

Keeping records of expenses and donations

Candidates must keep good records of all candidate election expenses and candidate donations (it is an offence not to). Candidates must obtain and retain an invoice and a receipt for all election expenses of $50 or more. Records have to be retained for three years after election day.

PART I

CANDIDATE DONATIONS

What are candidate donations?

A candidate donation includes any money, goods or services that are donated to a candidate, or a person on the candidate's behalf, for use in the candidate's campaign for election. The following are candidate donations:

- free goods or services that have a reasonable market value greater than $300;
- discounted goods or services where the reasonable market value of the goods or services is greater than $300;
 - the difference between the contract or agreed price and the reasonable market value of those goods and services is a donation;
- the purchase of goods or services from the candidate at a value that exceeds their reasonable market value;
 - the difference between the price paid and reasonable market value is a donation.
- extending credit to a candidate on favourable terms.
 - the value of the favourable terms is a donation.

The provision to a candidate of volunteer labour or free goods or services that have a reasonable market value of $300 or less is not a candidate donation. Nor is money provided by the candidate for his or her own campaign.

Candidate donations return

Candidates are required to include in the candidate return every candidate donation or contribution to a candidate donation of more than $1,500 (including GST), including a series of donations or contributions made by one person that adds up to more than $1,500.

For donations of more than $1,500 (other than anonymous donations or overseas donations), the candidate will need to provide the following details:

- the name and address of the donor; and
- the amount of the donation or, in the case of aggregated donations, the total amount of the donations; and
- the date that the donation was received or, in the case of aggregated donations, the date each donation was received; and
- whether the donation is made up of contributions from another person of more than $1,500; and if so:
 - the name and address of each contributor; and
 - the amount of each contribution made by the contributor or, in the case of aggregated contributions, the total amount of aggregated contributions; and
 - the date on which each donation funded from the contributions was made.
